

THE TEXAS ANNEXATION

By: Angel Lester, Heath
Farides, Cole Sheets,
Cameron Peavey, and John
O'Donal

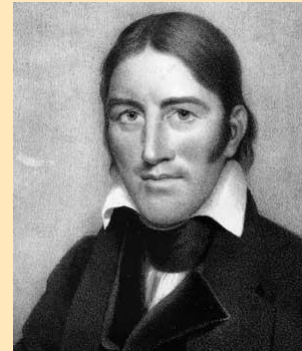

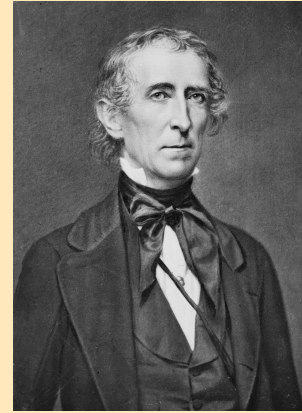

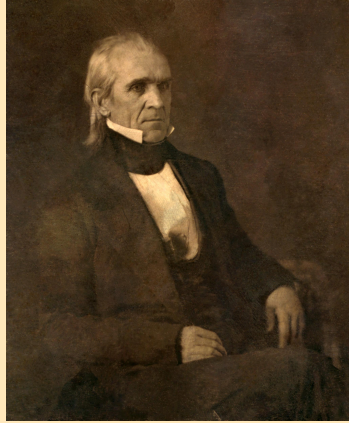

WHO

President James K. Polk

John Slidell

President John Tyler

David Crockett

WHAT

The Texas Annexation was an incorporation to the United States of America. The Spanish were the first ones to colonize. Spain let settlers settle down in Texas. Moses Austin got the permission to lead a group of 300 families into Texas in 1821. After he died his son Stephen Austin took over his father's legacy to lead people into new land to settle. In 1835 a fight started between a Mexican army and Anglo American colonists. The Siege of the Alamo lasted thirteen days.

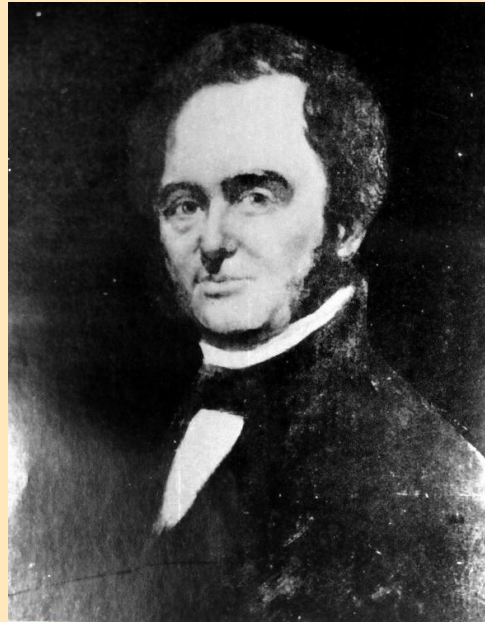

WHEN

1836 Texas was declared an independent state.

How

Permission was granted to Austin Moses which granted him to move people to the the texas territory.

When did Texas Join United States?

Texas was annexed to United States in 1846.

